

PROGRAMME SPECIFICATION

Certificate
(Presiding Elder)

Certificate (Presiding Elder)

Title of Award	-	Certificate
Programme Title	-	Certificate for Presiding Eldership
Awarding Body	-	St. Andrew's Theological College
Teaching Institution	-	St. Andrew's Theological College
Last Reviewed	-	December 2010

1.0 Mission Statement of Institution:

The mission of St. Andrew's Theological College (SATC), grounded in its motto adduxit eum ad Jesum (and he brought him to Jesus), is to provide programs of training that prepare its students for leadership marked by faith, integrity, scholarship, and competence in the Church and in the wider community.

1.1 Program Mission Statement:

The mission of the Certificate for Presiding Eldership program of SATC is a Christian response to God:

- To equip the Church of Christ of the Twenty-first Century to serve the world loved by God.
- To motivate and train men and women for leadership, ministry and service, through quality tertiary education that is Reformed and ecumenical, holistic and contextual.
- To enable an understanding of faith and the development of pastoral/caring skills to ensure effective engagement with pastoral situations of people who belong to pluralistic, post-colonial, third world societies.
- To replace unacceptable elements of Euro-American modernized Christianity.

2.0 Programme Aims:

St. Andrew's Theological College seeks to provide sound theological education with a view to equipping and training persons in an ecumenical setting for various forms of Christian Ministry locally, regionally and internationally.

The programme aims to help students:

- Develop a better understanding of the Christian faith and to enable them to be more effective Christian witnesses in the church and community.
- Develop quality leadership marked by faith, integrity, scholarship, and competence in the church and in the wider community.
- Develop the values, attitudes and characteristics in keeping the Church's doctrinal position.
- Develop a basic theological, historical, biblical, doctrinal knowledge of the Scriptures in relation to the other disciplines.

The Certificate programme is taught over a one (1) academic year and requires students to take a total of 175 credit hours.

3.0 Programme Learning Outcomes:

3.1 Knowledge & Understanding

Outcomes

On successful completion of this programme students will have:

- A thorough theological and biblical knowledge of Scriptures in the context of their faith.
- A thorough understanding of the fundamental doctrines of the Presbyterian Church of Trinidad and Tobago

3.2 Practical Skills

Outcomes

On successful completion of this programme, students shall have the ability to:

- Develop and maintain good interpersonal skills
- Communicate more effectively

- Develop and maintain effective partnership ministry

3.3 Attitude

Outcomes

On successful completion of this programme, successful students shall demonstrate the following attitudes:

- Accountability
- Magnanimity
- A deep sense of Commitment, devotion and loyalty
- Honesty and Integrity
- Spiritual maturity

3.5 Ministerial Formation

Outcomes

On successful completion of this programme, student shall show evidence of:

- Personal growth and understanding of self as it relates to the call to ministry integration and the demands of ministry with personal lifestyles and values.
- Spiritual development and personal faith foundational to one's life and ministry
- Professional development and preparation to undertake the responsibilities of ministry.

3.6 Teaching and Learning Strategies:

- Class participation
- Class presentations
- Interactive sessions facilitated by lecturers.
- Reading assignments

3.7 Assessment Methods:

Students' intellectual skills in relation to their overall attitude are assessed through coursework, individual and group presentations, case studies, projects, participation in class and field education (practicum).

4.0 Programme Structure and Requirements

The Certificate for the Presiding Eldership programme requires students to take a total of 175 credit hours. The programme is offered as evening classes with part-time enrolment. The normal length a full time student spends on the programme is one (1) year.

Graduation from SATC is based on a combination of academic performance, personal and spiritual development. In addition to grades the student must also complete all other assignments and receive a recommendation from the pastoral region to which she/he has been assigned, their specific Presbytery and the Board of Theological Education.

5.0 Admission Requirements

Preference will be given to applicants who are forty-five (45) years and over. Students are expected to meet the basic requirements for entry into the programme. A student may meet any of the following two requirements:

- Five CXC/GCE passes (Grades I-II) including English Language or its equivalent.
- Consideration will be given to students who are 45 years and over but do not possess five (5) subjects at Ordinary Level.

6.0 Programme Curriculum

The curriculum is designed to ensure that the learning outcomes identified are achieved. The programme curriculum is divided into two (2) semesters with compulsory as stated in the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church of Trinidad and Tobago.

The curriculum sheet shows all courses offered in this programme.

7.0 Assessment

Assessments should be fair, realistic, appropriate and consistent. The assessment methods employed for the programme are listed in Section 2.7 above as well as in the course outlines.

Assessment of the practicum (field education) is done by the Session of the Pastoral Region to which the student is assigned.

8.0 Indicators of Quality

Some of the indicators used for assessing quality are:

- Curriculum review and monitoring
- Feedback from staff, students and other stakeholders
- Analysis of report
- Self evaluation

9.0 Support Services for Learning

The following are support for the learning process:

- Library Services
- Computer, printer and photocopying use
- Guidance Counselling

10.0 Support for Graduates

The Certificate for Presiding Eldership programme is vocational and as such is intended to equip students with the necessary intellectual and personal skills, experience, attitudes and mission formation for Christian Ministry of various types.

Rev. Harold Sitahal

Principal, St. Andrew's Theological College